My reasons for requesting an extension of time for the building permit:

(Attach separate sheet if required)

I understand that the maximum period of time that the building permit will be extended for is 12 months and if not commenced or completed, as applicable, within that time a further application for extension of time will be required to be made.

_____ Signature of Applicant Builder Owner

A building permit lapses if the building work authorised by that permit has not commenced or is not completed within the periods specified on the building permit.

The relevant building surveyor may only extend the period within which any building work is required to be commenced or completed as specified on the building permit if the application for extension is made prior to the lapse of the permit and if the relevant building surveyor considers that the extent of the building work warrants an extension
