Mr Cook
Dear Sir
Could you please pick about £2.0.0 being amount of rates due up to date.
I have again to draw your attention to the fact, that the very highest rate you can increase on my property is £10.0.0 & as I have also my property the purchase money £100, interest on mortgage money is open, which makes the value not £60 & a minimum.
I will pay subject if you will kindly call the reduction attention to these facts and oblige Yours truly Geo Foreman

Wodderburn Jan 25th 1894

Dear Sir

Yours of 20th inst to hand I now send you Receipts for Town Rate in 1892 so that you can see how the sum of £1-16-0 comes in also receipts for 1893 to show you that the names were reduced to suit Lyons & Sons for the same amount as that sent in on the previous year there is no house on any of the 20 acre blocks at the same time they are all under the residence area ——

are responsible for all the 20 acre block to you may make use of this receipt to rectify matter & afterwards kindly return same and if you require any more information in regard to the land re this matter — it will be willingly supplied by yours

Respectfully

H M Lyons

I mentioned to Peter from that in your letter you said he & John had not paid for last years rates yet — to Peter having receipt for same desire me to send same to you in order to prevent mistakes on the new roll you state that there are more 20 acre blocks I notice that Peter is rated for 170 acres so that there is one block charged to him as the block he resides on contains 150 acres only & I dont think if John is charged with any of them — I may here mention that since our dissolution of partnership H & H M Lyons
