

SOCIAL MEDIA AND THE LAW

WEDNESDAY 9 OCTOBER, 2024 ✕

10 AM TO 1 PM (3 HOURS) ^

Social media can be an invaluable tool in promoting the work of your organisation, but if not properly managed it has the potential to cause damage to your organisation, clients, employees or volunteers.

Book in this 3-hour training session to understand the legal implications and risks of using social media in your not-for-profit organisations.

You'll learn about:

- Social media and its key legal risks
- Managing social media use
- Addressing inappropriate workplace behaviour
- How to deal with misconduct on social media
- Top tips for developing social media policies.

We'll also give you additional resources to help you in the future.

Register your Interest by 2 October, 2024

bvrchub@bgovolunteers.org.au

Funded by the Australian Government
Department of Social Services

Australian Government
Department of Social Services